"Chalet Angela"

In Roccasecca, located in the highest area of the historic centre, about 250 meters from the central square (Piazza Longa), we offer for sale a charming villa on one level, recently renovated.

The house was built in the 1960s in masonry with a pitched roof.

The property is divided as follows: from the entrance to the living area we find a spacious and bright living room with kitchen, a study overlooking the panoramic veranda as well as a bathroom; the sleeping area consists of two bedrooms and a bathroom.

A verdant garden of about 300 square meters enriches the Villetta with a barbecue area and with the right space for relaxation.

The house is in excellent condition, ready to use.

Ideal solution for fans of houses with gardens on one level.
